PART V: Essay

Please provide an original double-spaced essay, typed, two to three page (no longer than three pages) on ONE of the following topics. Correct spelling and grammar are expected. Credit to appropriate sources and/or bibliography must be included when applicable.

The Second Amendment in the Bill of Rights states: “A well regulated militia, being necessary to the security of a free state, the right of the people to keep and bear Arms, shall not be infringed.”

Choose one of the following essay topics:

- 1) Does the Second Amendment still hold the same meaning today as it did to our forefathers? Is it still relevant to present day American society?
- 2) Where do you stand on the issue of gun control? Does the government have the right to step in and disarm the American people, even though the right to bear arms is one of the main principles this country was built on?
- 3) What are the pros and cons of gun control? Discuss each side thoroughly.

*Note: “Extra credit” will not be given to those applicants who turn in more than one essay.

Definition of a polished essay: A polished essay includes clear and concise sentence structure and vocabulary, unique ideas and points, and excellent grammar and spelling. This type of essay also includes points that are backed up by quotes and evidence; it includes smooth transitions and an intro that is direct and to-the-point, all while lacking subjective adjectives and wordiness, or "random babble."

Do not use family members. Please ask them to read the attached Recommendation Form before writing the letter. One (1) letter of recommendation only. Applications with more than one will have one chosen at random and prior to reading. Please keep recommendation with application.

Dear Sir or Madam, Thank you for taking the time to complete a recommendation for the current Oregon FNRA Scholarship applicant. Letters of recommendation are an integral part of the entire Oregon FNRA Scholarship application. Therefore, your most earnest and observational thoughts on the student's qualifications are of great importance on this portion of the application. We have asked that the prospective Oregon FNRA Scholarship student give you as much time as needed to write a letter thoroughly examining and highlighting the applicant's strengths and weaknesses. Please note that students will not be judged on per se weaknesses; our purpose for the letters of recommendation is to give us insight and perspective on the applicant's judgment, dependability, interpersonal skills, attitude, and initiative. We hope to gain a clearer picture of the applicant with this portion of the application, in addition his or her GPA, personal statement, and essay. Please attach one letter of recommendation citing your understanding of the individual's qualifications for the Oregon FNRA Scholarship. Specific examples of behavior and acts of ambition are extremely beneficial to the applicant. The contact information is listed below. Please do not hesitate to call if you have any questions. Thank you, Dr. Maurizio Valerio, Oregon FNRA State Funding Committee Chairman 541-853-2355 maurizio.valerio@gmail.com
